

The BIC festival returns to Caorle

📅 September 7, 2022   📁 Cosplay

For two days, Saturday 17th and Sunday 18th September from 10 am to 11 pm at the San Francesco Village, the world of cosplayers, comix and gaming enthusiasts come together giving life to a unique event, the cosplay event organized inside a tourist village: in Caorle the BIC festival brings fun and lightheartedness.

After the success of the first three editions, the most awaited cosplay event of the year returns, the only one inside a tourist village: the BIC – Cosplay, Comics & Games al San Francesco village in Caorle. The 17 and 18 September, from 10 to 23, the doors of the village will open to the world of comics, cinema, games and cosplay for all fans, but not only.

An area for science fiction cinema and a ring of the “Tana delle Tigri” for cosplay wrestlers

There are many news of this fourth edition. In addition to a wide show marketto the traditional gara cosplayscheduled for Saturday 17 September at 9 pm, in the area dedicated to artists and authors and the gaming area, this year guests will also find a beautiful area reserved for science fiction cinema. The exterior and interior of the former multiplex will be dedicated to Star Wars, Star Trek, Stargate, Ghostbusters, Visitors, Umbrella Corporation and Batman with a large interactive exhibition with faithful reproductions, flagship of the festival.

That's not all: in the square / parking of the San Francesco Village a ring will be set up where the cosplay wrestlers of “Tana Delle Tigri Italian Cosplayer” and “Old Tribute Superstar Wrestling” will perform wrestling moves recalling the world of the Tiger Man. Lagara cosplay on Saturday at 9pm, open to all, with high-level judges in the world of cosplay costumes, is the highlight of the festival and this year is giving away an electric scooter for the winners.
